

One wing of the existing Brookline High School was completely renovated to create completely new and accessible science facilities including 16 specialized lab/classrooms, two chemistry labs, five chemistry classrooms, a computer lab/classroom, and all associated storage and support services. The self-contained laboratory/classrooms are designed to promote active, hands-on science instruction.